GREAT BRITAIN AND RUSSIA SIGN AGREEMENT IN MOSCOW

WILL RENDER EACH OTHER EVERY KIND OF HELP IN THE WAR AGAINST GERMANY

Fulfilment Of Mr. Churchill's Policy Of Full Military Collaboration With Soviet

AN AGREEMENT WAS SIGNED IN MOSCOW ON SATURDAY NIGHT FOR FULL MILITARY COLLABORATION BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND SOVIET RUSSIA.

THIS WAS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED IN LONDON YESTERDAY.

The agreement, it is pointed out in London, is designed for the effective prosecution of the war in fulfilment of Mr. Churchill's policy of full military collaboration with Russia.

The agreement consists of two Articles:—

1. The two Governments mutually undertake to render each other every assistance of all kinds in the present war against Nazi Germany.

2. They further undertake that during this war either Government will neither negotiate nor conclude an armistice or a treaty of peace, except by mutual agreement.

The agreement, which is not subject to ratification and comes into force at once, was signed by SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS, British Ambassador to Soviet Russia, on behalf of the British Government, and M. VIACHELAV MIKHAILOVICH MOLOTOV, Soviet Foreign Commissar.

THROUGHOUT THE NEGOTIATIONS THE DOMINIONS AND THE UNITED STATES WERE KEPT FULLY INFORMED AND ALL HAD EXPRESSED COMPLETE AGREEMENT WITH THE PROPOSAL.

GERMAN TANKS AND INFANTRY DRIVEN OUT OF ROGATCHEV

ZURICH, July 13 (Reuter).—TWO GERMAN TANKS AND INFANTRY WERE DRIVEN OUT OF THE KEY TOWN OF ROGATCHEV, at the junction of the Dnieper and Pruth rivers, south-west of Smolensk, was told yesterday in a Nazi report that reached Switzerland.

Rogatchev is some miles east of Bobruisk, through which the Germans last week launched the southern arm of their pincer drive on Smolensk.

The Nazis, says the report, failed to get across the Dnieper, not only owing to the timely blowing up of the bridge by the Russians, but also owing to the "robust fighting spirit of the Soviet soldiers."

The Germans penetrated Rogatchev, but had to evacuate under fire from massed Soviet artillery.

MORE INFREQUENT

This is typical of reports from the Nazi Propaganda Company—as war correspondents with the German Army are called—but even these are becoming more and more infrequent in the Nazi press.

The Basler Nachrichten's Berlin correspondent said yesterday that the secrecy surrounding all events on the eastern front is now "even more striking than it was at the start of the campaign."

Through long-term hopes are still high in Germany, the German public has given up all expectations of early success announcements.

SIMLA, July 13 (Reuter).—A press conference has been called for tomorrow (Monday) by the Simla Secretariat when an important political announcement is expected.

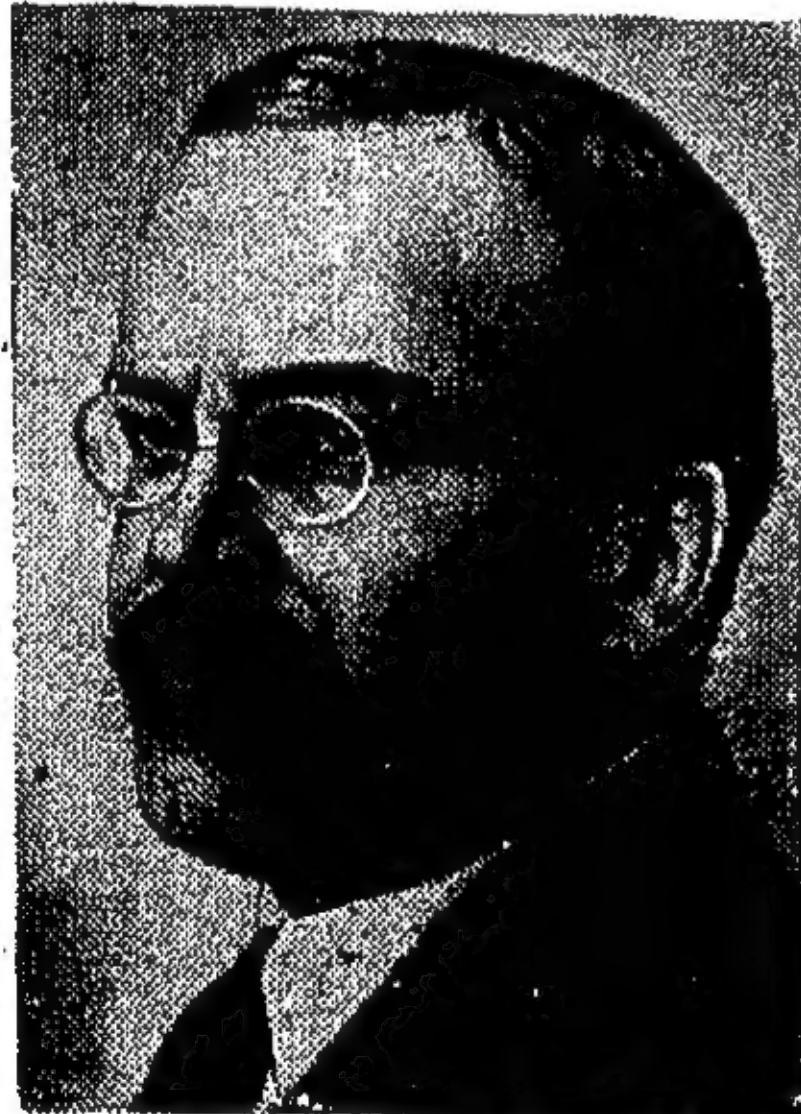

Bulgarian Divisions Mobilised

ANKARA, July 13 (Reuter).—About 18 Bulgarian divisions have been mobilised according to reports reaching here.

Six of them are in occupied countries. The Bulgarians have been busy building aerodromes.

It is believed there has been some increase in the strength of the Bulgarian Cavalry on the Turkish frontier but there is no confirmation of the reports of large Bulgarian concentrations there.

SIGNED FOR RUSSIA

M. Molotov, Foreign Commissar, who signed the military agreement with Britain, on behalf of the Soviet Government.

Russian Guerillas Are Inflicting Heavy Losses On Panzer, Infantry Units

MOSCOW, July 13 (Reuter).—RUSSIAN GUERRILLAS OPERATING BEHIND THE EASTERN BATTLE FRONT ARE INFLECTING HEAVY LOSSES ON PANZER AND INFANTRY UNITS, ACCORDING TO THE PRAVDA.

Among interesting incidents described by the Pravda is the story of how three German tanks became "neutralised" owing to lack of petrol after entering the square of Pinsk.

Russian partisans climbed into the roof of the tanks and put machine-guns out of action with hand-grenades, then blacksmiths began to dismantle the tanks and the Germans inside surrendered.

A band of 100 guerrillas attacked a German motorised infantry in the Beresina region and the Pravda states that 150 Germans were killed and the rest dispersed.

Other guerrilla groups ambushed and destroyed 18 tanks with bottles of petrol. Peasants in the Nesly region dismantled a railway and carried off the tracks into the marshes.

ARMoured CARS DESTROYED In one unspecified region, Soviet partisans between July 4 and July 8 destroyed or captured seven armoured cars, one tank and one Whippet tank.

According to the RED STAR, organ of the Army, German prisoners have revealed that Nazi non-commissioned officers as early as

BOMBER COMMAND AIRCRAFT FLY THROUGH HEAVY THUNDERSTORMS TO ATTACK BREMEN: GERMANS WORRIED OVER DAMAGE IN N.W.

FLYING THROUGH HEAVY THUNDERSTORMS, AIRCRAFT OF THE BOMBER COMMAND ON SATURDAY NIGHT BOMBED OBJECTIVES IN BREMEN AND ELSEWHERE IN NORTH-WESTERN GERMANY, CAUSING LARGE FIRES.

THE SHIPBUILDING YARDS AT BREST WERE ALSO ATTACKED.

Two of our aircraft are missing from these night operations.

Enemy air activity over Britain on Saturday night was again slight and was mainly confined to the coastal areas.

Some bombs were dropped at a few points in the south-west and east of England but there were no casualties or damage.

The Moscow Radio broadcast that the British airmen have shown the true side of Goering's boast that no British bombs would fall in the Ruhr which was now working at 30 per cent. of its capacity.

Giving an impressive list of objectives bombed by the British since the beginning of July, the broadcast said that the Germans were worried at the material damage that was being caused. British planes had just brought to a close a week of almost non-stop raids.

Eighty-three German planes were brought down in daylight for the loss of 43 British fighters and eight bombers but the pilots of eight are safe. In addition another 20 Nazi bombers were destroyed during night attacks.

NO COMPARISON

The desultory and scattered nature of the Nazi raids could not be compared with the British daylight sweeps during the past week.

British bombers and fighters were again in action over Northern France on Saturday, says Reuter.

In the morning heavy bombers, escorted by fighters, attacked railway and canal communications, says an Air Ministry communique. In the afternoon, an offensive sweep over Northern France was carried out by fighters.

Six enemy fighters were destroyed in these operations and two British fighters were lost.

During the day, Blenheim bombers searched for enemy shipping off the Dutch coast and attacked a number of patrol vessels.

MACKENZIE KING TO VISIT LONDON

Mr. Mackenzie King, Prime Minister of Canada, has returned to Ottawa after a three-weeks' tour of Western Canada.

The Canadian Premier fore-shadowed a visit to England.

Mr. Mackenzie King is full of enthusiasm for the expansion of Canada's war programme.

DEVASTATION POWER OF CANNONS ON BRITISH FIGHTERS

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—The devastation power of the cannons with which British fighters are now armed is such that only a small proportion of German pilots are able to bale out safely when their machines are hit.

Time after time during the recent R.A.F. sweeps over northern France, German machines have simply exploded in mid-air when hit by these new cannon shells.

It was stated authoritatively yesterday that although these encounters are over Germany or German-occupied territory, the Germans are losing much more heavily in pilots than the R.A.F. during the battle of Britain last autumn.

EXPLODED TO PIECES

One pilot said: "The Messerschmitt exploded when hit by my cannon shell; to pieces, wreckage flying in all directions."

Another R.A.F. pilot said: "After one short burst there was a terrific explosion in the Messerschmitt's fuselage and it took me all my time to avoid the wreckage."

VICHY OPPOSITION IN SYRIA ENDED

Armistice Negotiations Without Acrimony

"I AM GLAD TO SAY THAT THE WHOLE PROCEEDINGS WERE CARRIED OUT WITHOUT ACRIMONY," declared General Sir Henry Maitland-Wilson, Commander-in-Chief of the Allied Forces in Syria, in a broadcast on the Syrian armistice which was signed on Saturday night.

General Wilson said that they had just been taking part in a painful but necessary ceremony and added that the Vichy opposition in Syria had now come to end.

"The negotiations in which we have been engaged should ensure us of a bulwark of defence against the Germans and a well placed position from which to deal with him. We have done our best to spare the honour of the French Army without prejudicing our own security," he said.

JAPAN & NAZI CHESTNUTS

VICTORIA, British Columbia, July 13 (Reuter).—Japan is "not going to pull Germany's chestnuts out of the fire," Mr. Ichiro Kawai, Japanese Consul at Vancouver, British Columbia, who was for four years at the Japanese Embassy in London, told interviewers yesterday.

"We are not committed too deeply with the Axis and are not vassals of Germany," he said. "We have much in common with the British people. Like them, we are a seafaring nation and depend on world trade."

"We are not like the Germans. They are ruthless and uncouth."

The official ratification of the terms will take place in Cairo and Beirut and the presence of Mr. Oliver Lyttleton, representative of the British War Cabinet in the Middle East, in Cairo, will be of great value in this matter.

TERMS INITIALED

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—The Vichy Commission initialled the armistice documents at 10.40 last night (local time) pending official ratification, writes Reuter's Special correspondent, with the Imperial forces at a British yeomanry camp near Acre, yesterday.

Discussion of the armistice terms took place here in conditions of utmost secrecy. The population of Haifa, only about 17 miles away, was completely unaware that Vichy delegates had arrived here shortly after 11 o'clock this morning.

Led by General de Verdillac, defender of Damascus, who is representing General Dentz, and a number of staff officers, the delegates had travelled along the battle-scarred coastal road from Beirut.

582,000 Italian Casualties

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—Italian casualties, including natives, total considerably over 500,000 to the end of June, it is learned in authoritative circles in London.

Italian and native prisoners and other casualties amount to 582,000. Details show that 122,000 East African natives deserted to the Allies.

64-HOUR RAIDS ON NAPLES, TRIPOLI, BENGHAZI

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—Raids on NAPLES, TRIPOLI and BENGHAZI were made by R.A.F. bombers for the last 64 hours during large-scale operations in the Middle East which saw final blows on Vichy French positions in Syria.

Details were given in the R.A.F. communique issued here yesterday.

The first raid was on Italy's North African base of Tripoli on Wednesday evening when there was "heavy damage on enemy shipping" including hits on two ships of 10,000 tons and one of 7,000 tons.

Lifelines and pieces of wreckage were hurled high in the air. Warehouses hit blew up with a violent explosion.

Two enemy fighters attacked British aircraft, one of which was

SINO-EUROPEAN PRESS BASKETBALL ENCOUNTER

The newly-formed European Press hoopers, made their first appearance on Saturday at the Chinese Y.M.C.A. Kowloon, when after a very hard-fought friendly basketball encounter, they lost to the Chinese Press by 20 points to 31.

The European Press quintette would have won, had they been more accurate in their shooting, and given time, they would be a strong combination yet. However, the Chinese Press, looked very dangerous from the start of the game and at half-time, had piled a score of 26 points as against their opponents' 10 points.

From that time on, the European Press maintained pressure but the opposition was too strong. The Chinese Press were well served by Ching Po-Ki, Ma Shu-wah and Li Pal-chak, who between them scored nearly all the goals for their side, while the best players for the losers were Eddie Tsang and Felix Wu, both former stars of the Yenching University. Kenneth Sayer and Joe Velga also played very well at forward, the latter playing his height to advantage.

European Press—F. Wu (6); M. P. Tsang (3), Kenneth Sayer (2) and Eddie Tsang (4). Total 20 points.

Chinese Press—Ma Shu-wah (10), Li Pal-chak (11), Ching Po-Ki (8) and Lau Hay-man (2). Total 31 points.

DENVER (Colorado), July 13 (Reuter).—Gene Sarazen, former holder of the British and American Open Golf Championships, is making another bid to win the American Professional Golfers Association Championship, which he first won in 1922 and last won in 1933.

Sarazen reached one semi-final on Friday by beating Densmore Shute by 7 and 6.

The other semi-finals are Byron Nelson, the defending champion who beat Ben Hogan two up, Ray Mangrum, who beat Sam Snead by 6 and 4, and Vic Ghezzi, who beat Jimmy Hines by 8 and 7.

The tournament is being played at Denver, Colorado.

National Debt beat Mr. J. Abraham's Brightello by two lengths, with Sackem, another four lengths behind, third.

The betting was 7-2, National Debt; 9-2, Brightello; 15-1, Sackem.

V.R.C. LADIES SET 3 RECORDS

Lady members of the V.R.C. carried the day for the home club, when they swept the board in all the ladies' events at the swimming gala held on Saturday night between the Victoria Recreation Club and the Lai Lun Swimming Union in which the former won by 53 points to 23.

Three new ladies' records were established by the V.R.C. mermaids, the 50 yards free-style, which Miss V. Churn covered in 30.2/5 secs. a full second better than the record she established in the last Colony Championships, the 150 yards Medley Relay and the 200 yards free-style Relay, clipping 4.2/5 secs. off the record in the former, and two seconds in the latter.

Star performer was undoubtedly Miss Vivienne Churn, who demonstrated that she is in a class all by herself in ladies' free-style and breast-stroke sprint events.

Chan Chun-ham, Colony record-holder, caused some disappointment when he did not participate in the 440 yards free-style, but Yau Sai-kwan, Lai Lun's second stringer, caused a sensation when he beat Charles Huang of the V.R.C.

Following are the results:—

Ladies' 150 Yards Medley Relay:—1, V.R.C. (Miss C. Guterres (back-stroke), Miss V. Churn (breast-stroke) and Miss J. Anderson (free-style)); 2, Lai Tsun (Miss Lily Sadick (back-stroke), Miss Lo Po-kum (breast-stroke) and Miss Ko Mui-ling (free-style)). Time: 1 min. 49 1/5 secs. (Record).

Men's 220 Yards breast-stroke:—1, Fong Chong-yu (Lai Tsun) (3 mins. 15 3/5 secs.); 2, J. Marques (V.R.C.) (3 mins. 19 4/5 secs.); 3, A. Alves (V.R.C.) (3 mins. 21 secs.).

Men's 100 Yards free-style:—1, Lau Tai-ping (Lai Tsun) (50 4/5 secs.); 2, L. Rozario-Pereira (V.R.C.) (51 4/5 secs.); 3, C. Silva-Netto (V.R.C.) (53 1/5 secs.).

Boys' 75 Yards Medley hand-cup:—1, W. Ribeiro (50) (65 4/5 secs.); 2, J. R. Pereira (6) (61 2/5 secs.); 3, C. Guterres (3) (64 2/5 secs.).

Men's 440 Yards free-style:—1, Yau Sai-kwan (Lai Tsun) (5 mins. 37 4/5 secs.); 2, Charles Huang (V.R.C.) (8 mins. 45 secs.); 3, Lau Tai-ping (Lai Tsun) (6 mins. 19 secs.).

Ladies' 50 Yards breast-stroke:—1, Miss V. Churn (V.R.C.) (33 secs.); 2, Miss M. Noronha (V.R.C.) (42 2/5 secs.); 3, Miss Ko Mui-ling (Lai Tsun) (44 secs.).

Men's 100 Yards back-stroke:—1, A. K. Rumjahn (V.R.C.) (71 1/5 secs.); 2, Poon Wing-kai (Lai Tsun) (74 secs.); 3, Yau Yui-ting (Lai Tsun) (75 2/5 secs.).

Ladies' 100 Yards back-stroke:—1, Miss Lily Sadick (Lai Tsun) (85 4/5 secs.); 2, Miss C. Guterres (V.R.C.) (92 4/5 secs.); 3, Miss Tsang Fung-kwan (Lai Tsun) (94 secs.).

Ladies' 50 Yards free-style:—1, Miss V. Churn (V.R.C.) (30 2/5 secs.); 2, Miss J. Anderson (V.R.C.) (32 1/5 secs.); 3, Miss Ko Mui-ling (Lai Tsun) (33 secs.). (Record).

Men's 150 Yards Medley Relay:—1, V.R.C. (A. K. Rumjahn (back-stroke), J. A. Marques (breast-stroke) and C. Huang (free-style)) (1 min. 31 secs.); 2, Lai Tsun (Lau Yui-ting (back-stroke), Tsang Cheong-ming (breast-stroke) and Kam Hop-ming (free-style)) (1 min. 34 secs.).

Ladies' 200 Yards free-style relay (4 x 50 yards):—1, V.R.C. (Misses C. Guterres, I. Lopes, V. Churn and J. Anderson) (2 mins. 10 2/5 secs.); 2, Lai Tsun (Misses Ko Mui-ling, Tsang Fung-kwan, Lily Sadick and Chang Oi-lin) (2 mins. 16 1/5 secs.).

Men's 300 Yards free-style relay (4 x 75 yards):—1, Lai Tsun (Lau Tai-ping, Chan Chun-ham, Yau Sai-kwan and Poon Wing-kai) (7 mins. 43 secs.); 2, V.R.C. (L. Rozario-Pereira, C. Silva-Netto, A. K. Rumjahn and C. Huang) (10 mins. 12 secs.).

Final Result:—V.R.C. 53 points; Lai Tsun 23 points.

KING'S THEATRE ATTRACTION

"YOU'LL FIND OUT"

Mystery to the crash of cymbals, spooks to the boom-boom of drums, murder to the tootle of trumpets! That's melodrama in Kay Kyser, his band and the College of Musical Knowledge.

"That's 'You'll Find Out,' and the title is a threat, a promise and an answer. Now showing at the King's Theatre.

The picture starts with Kay Kyser finishing a College of Musical Knowledge broadcast, but the story starts when the band accepts an invitation to entertain at Helen Parrish's debutante party. It is held in the ancestral Bellacrest home, a gloomy old mansion surrounded by a moat and filled throughout with a queer archaeological collection.

Helen's sweetheart is Dennis O'Keefe, the band's manager, and her aunt is Alma Kruger, whose interest in spiritualism has put her in the power of Bela Lugosi as a fake medium, Peter Lorre as a bogus psychologist and Boris Karloff as the family advisor whose "advice" is designed to dump the great Bellacrest fortune into their laps instead of the heroine's.

Of course, Kay and his gang solve the mystery, unmask the bogeyman, rescue the heroine and save their own skins, but their manner of doing can only be satisfactorily conveyed by the film itself, which reaches a high mark for entertainment.

Besides the splendid screen artists already mentioned, "You'll Find Out" also features Kyser's own stars—Ginny Simms, sweet singer and sweet gal; Kerry Babbitt, Ish Kabibble and Sully Mason. They not only contribute their solo specialties but play important roles, and aid in frustrating the fiend and furnishing fun.

ONE OF THE UNHAPPIEST EPISODES OF THE WAR CLOSED WITH CESSATION OF SYRIAN HOSTILITIES

JERUSALEM, July 13 (REUTERS)—THE "CEASE FIRE" ORDER WAS GIVEN ON THE SYRIAN FRONT at midnight on Friday, and one of the unhappiest episodes of the war may be regarded as over.

It was stated authoritatively here yesterday that a French delegation passed through the Allied lines during the night to discuss armistice terms.

The basis of discussion will be the terms previously communicated to Vichy, despite Vichy's token rejection.

Right up to the last moment, the confusion that has clouded the truce negotiations continued.

In spite of fairly clear evidence of the cessation of hostilities, and of an official London announcement that "it can be safely assumed that General Dentz, the High Commissioner in Syria, has given the order to cease fire," it was still being reported that the order would not become effective until midnight, Saturday, and that discussions regarding the possibility of formal armistice negotiations were still in the preliminary stage.

VICHY EMISSARIES

It has since, however, been definitely established that General Dentz sent emissaries through our lines on Friday who stated the French were ready to negotiate on the basis of the Allied terms. General Wilson, the British G.O.C., replied that if emissaries were sent with a white flag to a certain spot on the Beirut-Haifa road, he would send Allied representatives.

General Dentz gave the cease fire order at midnight and the French delegates arrived shortly afterwards.

CONFUSION EXPLAINED

The course of events since Friday appears to be as follows.

Communication between Washington and the United States consul at Beirut, which had broken down, was re-established during Friday and consequently the British terms reached General Dentz.

who sent a reply he was willing to negotiate on this basis.

The British then instructed General Dentz to send plenipotentiaries with a white flag to a certain spot on a road between the forces to meet a similar British delegation.

Consequently the cease fire order was given by General Dentz.

Yesterday's Cairo G.H.Q. communique confirmed that the cease fire order has been given to British troops in Syria.

General Wilson and General Catroux have conferred with Vichy French representatives. It added.

LONDON NOT SURPRISED

LONDON, July 13 (Reuters)—The order to cease fire in Syria comes as no surprise to those closely following events here, Reuters' diplomatic correspondent learns.

General Dentz's request some days ago for a cessation of hostilities was an obvious indication that the Vichy forces could not hold out any longer against the inexorable pressure of the Allied troops, and that by resisting for some weeks the "face" of the Vichy Government vis-a-vis the German masters had been saved at least in the belief of Vichy politicians.

NAZI BIDDING

That this was a sanguine reading of the minds of the Nazis was clear by the emphatic repudiation of the Allied armistice terms published by the Vichy Government on Friday.

It may be assumed that Admiral Darlan declined the armistice terms as "unacceptable" at the bidding of the German authorities.

Vichy's rejection of the Allies' moderate condition has thrown the responsibility for capitulation upon General Dentz and the local Vichy authorities.

They are left to extricate themselves from the situation to which the Vichy Government has committed them.

BRITISH "V" CAMPAIGN

LONDON, July 13 (Reuters)—An R.A.F. officer, broadcasting to the peoples of conquered countries in Europe yesterday, said the beginning of the "V" Campaign had been changed from July 14 to July 20.

He said he could not give the reason, as this would reveal information to the Germans, but "the reason is a good one."

He urged people in the conquered countries to write the letter "V"—standing for victory—wherever they could, and to scatter paper shaped in a "V".

VICHY CAMP DIVISION

ALLEGED RIFT OVER SYRIAN ARMISTICE

ZURICH, July 13 (Reuters)—Rumours are circulating here alleging a difference of opinion between Admiral Darlan and Marshal Petain over the Syrian armistice.

Political observers regard Germany's desire to see the conflict prolonged as the factor which decided Vichy to reject the British terms.

The Vichy correspondent of the Journal de Geneve says that General Weygand, who is in Vichy, has reported on the progress made in strengthening the African defences, notably at Dakar.

"Franco-Spanish conversations," the correspondent adds, "are progressing between the French General Nogues and the Spanish General Orgaz. In order to coordinate the defence in event of a new American initiative."

"Similarly a Franco-Portuguese exchange of views is reported to have taken place."

U.S. CHALLENGE TO GERMANY

Nazi Action To Follow Washington Demarche?

STOCKHOLM, July 13 (Reuters)—"The American challenge will eventually be met by the only manner Germany can meet such steps, namely by action," writes the Berlin correspondent of the Stockholm Demokraten discussing the despatch of American troops to Iceland.

"The initiated think that Germany will first try a final demarche in Washington but it is emphasised that the German Command cannot revise its decision to torpedo all ships carrying contraband into the blockade zone."

VIRTUAL ALLIANCE

"The Wilhelmstrasse suggests that the United States is preparing also to occupy the Shetlands and other areas of Scotland which, with the action in Iceland, would be equivalent to a military alliance with Britain."

"Certain quarters suggest bringing matters to a climax by sinking the first American ship encountered on its way to Iceland, but it is believed that such strong action will await the result of the demarche in Washington."

TERRIFIC HAVOC IN MUENSTER

ZURICH, July 13 (Reuters)—A reliable source here stated yesterday that in the last three R.A.F. raids on Muenster, terrific damage was done in nearly every part of the town.

The authorities, it was added, have ordered large-scale evacuation of the population.

Recently Mr. John Cudahy, former U.S. Ambassador to Belgium, writing in the New York Times, said that about two miles west of Unter den Linden, in Berlin, a British bomb dropped on a vacant lot, causing a huge crater and creating havoc for 500 yards around.

Roofs were blown off, windows shattered and roads filled with debris.

"The Germans told us," Mr. Cudahy added, "that the bomb was filled with compressed air."

Heavy British Air Attack On German Naval Base

LONDON, July 13 (Reuters)—A heavy British raid on the German naval base at Wilhelmshaven on Friday night was followed yesterday morning by another sweep over Northern France.

Heavy R.A.F. bombers escorted by a strong force of fighters crossed the coast in the direction of Boulogne; just after this a strong anti-aircraft barrage was heard from the French coast.

On Friday night, despite a thunderstorm, a heavy attack was launched on Wilhelmshaven. All our bombers returned safely.

It was announced in London yesterday that a British trawler bound for the fishing grounds off Iceland fought a lone battle with a German bomber, which crashed into the sea.

Off the north-west coast of France a Hudson bomber bombed and set fire to an enemy mine-sweeper.

ST. OMER RAID
Railway communications near St. Omer were attacked in yesterday's sweep over Northern France.

Five enemy fighters were shot down, the R.A.F. losing two fighters.

ENEMY ACTIVITY
Enemy air activity over Britain on Friday night was on a very small scale, states an Air Ministry communique.

Bombs were dropped at a place on the north-east coast of Scotland doing some damage, and causing a small number of casualties, including a small number of persons killed.

Apart from this incident there is nothing to report, adds the communique.

DAMAGING RAIDS
Striking evidence of the damage caused by the R.A.F. bombings of Germany was given in London yesterday when it was stated that the weight of bombs dropped by the R.A.F. in June was more than the weight of bombs dropped by the Luftwaffe on Britain in April last.

April was claimed by the Germans as a record month. Also noted in London is the devastating power of the cannons fitted on our latest fighters.

NUMBERS AS WELL AS QUALITY
PLYMOUTH, July 13 (Reuters)—The High Commissioner for Canada in Britain, Mr. Vincent Massey, speaking here yesterday, declared the Empire Air Training Scheme was the prelude to victory.

"One of these days," he said, "perhaps sooner than people realise, this scheme will give us air superiority. Then we will have the numbers as well as the quality to destroy the German machine."

Mr. Massey said the spirit of Plymouth was unbroken and would remain so till the end.

He revealed in conclusion that Canada now had the largest machine-gun factory in the world.

NAZIS BETWEEN DEVIL AND THE DEEP BLUE SEA
LONDON, July 13 (Reuters)—Commenting on the lull in the fighting between Russia and Germany the London "Daily Telegraph" says the next phase in this titanic struggle is bound to be even fiercer than the first for one sufficient reason apart from all others.

The invaders could not and dare not draw back if they would. They are committed to an enterprise in which victory is the only alternative to disastrous defeat.

Such a clash cannot end in a mere as-you-were situation. Failure means the collapse of the Nazi dream of world dominion.

The strain of such a campaign is incalculable and that is why, while the issue hangs still in the balance, it behoves this country unrelentingly to multiply and intensify the attacks on German ports, industrial centres and communications.

BRITISH TROOPS IN ICELAND
WASHINGTON, July 13 (Reuters)—A claim that the British troops should leave Iceland. Just their presence should tempt a German attack and thus involve the American troops now there was made at a secret meeting of the Senate Naval Affairs Committee.

This is according to reports in Washington described as reliable.

The Navy Secretary, Col. R. H. P. added, "that the committee had this to President Roosevelt."

ICELANDIC GOODWILL MESSAGE

REYKJAVIK, July 13 (Reuters)

The "sincere hope that the closer co-operation now beginning between Iceland and the United States may be blessed by good fortune," is expressed by the Regent of Iceland, Sveinn Djoernason, in a goodwill message to President Roosevelt yesterday.

Recalling that the first white man to set foot on American soil was an Icelander, the Regent continues: "We also recall that the nation of the United States has always held high the flag of liberty and democracy which we nations of Scandinavian origin respect so greatly and which has been so strongly emphasised in Scandinavian co-operation, although this co-operation has unfortunately ceased for the time being."

LA LINEA MISTAKEN FOR GIB!

GIBRALTAR, July 13 (Reuters)

La Linea, the Spanish town near Gibraltar, was bombed at 3 o'clock yesterday morning by unidentified planes, believed here to have been Italian.

Six were killed and nearly a score injured, state workers coming to Gibraltar from the town.

The planes flew very low and apparently mistook La Linea for Gibraltar.

Searchlights were turned on but the planes, which appeared to have approached from a northerly direction, kept out of range.

MALTA BOMBED

MALTA, July 13 (Reuters)

Bombs were dropped on Malta last Friday night causing slight damage and a number of civilian casualties, according to an official communique. The services suffered no loss either of life or property.

Night fighters which went up failed to contact the enemy.

A formation of enemy aircraft approached the island on Saturday morning, but turned back while still some miles away on seeing British planes coming into action.

SUCCESSFUL BRITISH U-BOAT SINKING CAMPAIGN

LONDON, July 13 (Reuters)

The First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. A. V. Alexander, declared in a speech yesterday that in the past few weeks the British U-boat sinking campaign had had a "particularly successful time."

Mr. Alexander continued: "I know this will rejoice your hearts though I cannot tell you where when and how the U-boat were sunk."

The First Lord mentioned two other factors which would give us confidence—the serious interference by the Royal Navy with German supplies for Libya, and the damage to enemy shipping by the Bomber and Coastal Command.

Making an appeal to workers for more arms, Mr. Alexander said that never in the course of the war had such an important appeal been made.

TOTAL FORCE

SIGNOR MUSSOLINI is credited with once having made the observation that "the best way to eat an artichoke is one leaf at a time." Herr Hitler's application of this principle in his use of total force for world domination has once again been demonstrated by his attack on Russia. His talk of being forced to take action against the Soviet because of the menace of Communism to world civilisation has been completely discredited. To him, the Soviet Republic constituted a danger to his plans and, therefore, its power had to be destroyed before he could attempt to pluck the next leaf out of the artichoke.

What has been a remarkable feature of his successes in eating the European artichoke is the manner in which his victims have more or less co-operated in his plans by refusing to realise that Herr Hitler's appetite for power is insatiable, that his promises and assurances will never be honoured and that he is bent on removing, one by one, all obstacles which he considers a bar to his plans for world mastery.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA, Poland, Denmark, Norway and the Low Countries blindly accepted his words—after each conquest these words amounted to the statement that he had no further territorial designs in Europe. On each occasion these promises gave way to total force. With the west of Europe subjugated, the same procedure was worked in the Balkans—one by one they fell under the Nazi yoke, when early preparedness and a resolve to unite and face the Nazi war machine together might have presented a very different picture to what it is today. Even when resistance was decided on, it was too late to be effective and placed those who wanted to help the victims at the greatest possible disadvantage for the simple reason that the Nazis had been permitted to gain the initiative and prepare the ground work for the final blow. These are the lessons of twenty-two months of war in which the Germans have used total force to pick their objectives one by one after having carefully prepared the way by disarming their intended victims with glowing pledges and words of friendship.

THE INVASION OF Russia is a further demonstration of what the Prime Minister of Britain termed "Nazism per se." Here again Russia, in the face of lesson after lesson, failed to recognise the utter unscrupulousness of the German mind, which, under the guise of friendship, prepared its use of total force to destroy the Soviet State. The world, as usual, is already asking who will be next, if, and when, the Soviet Republic is defeated—a futile question. What does it matter now to try and guess who will form the next leaf on the artichoke? What does matter is that there should be no further day dreaming of security under snug assurance which

HONGKONG RICE STOCKS UNDER MILLION BAGS, SAYS THE CONTROLLER

BY OUR STAFF REPORTER

A categorical denial of the allegations contained in an article which appeared in the Hongkong Daily Press on Saturday, under the heading "Much Dissatisfaction At Government's Plans In Conducting Local Rice Monopoly Scheme" (which heading was, incidentally, called "subversive" by the Rice Controller), was made by MR. F. C. BARRY, the Rice Controller, in a special interview on that day.

Referring to the petition to the Colonial Office, the Rice Controller said that, not having been informed of the matter, he was unable to comment on this part of the report.

As to the million bags of rice, Mr. Barry stated that this was "ridiculous" and that there was "no such amount of rice in the whole Colony."

The allegation that "Government sealed the godowns in which the rice was stored" was dismissed by Mr. Barry as "an absolute lie," while the statements in connexion with the application for release of ten bags for own consumption and Government charges were also referred to as lies by the Rice Controller.

"As the question affects the Chinese population to whom rice is the staple diet," went on Mr. Barry, "I shall be glad if you will publish my replies to the allegations."

No statement was made by the Rice Controller in regard to the public complaint contained in the second part of the article referred to above.

RELEASE FROM STORES

When seen by a Hongkong Daily Press reporter later in the afternoon, our original informant stated that he was "exceedingly happy to hear" that the sealing of rice godowns was "an absolute lie," as the rice merchants might now hope to obtain the release of all their stocks stored in the godowns and which, right in time, deteriorate.

The rice, went on the speaker, is kept in storage not because there is no market for them, but because negotiations with Government for having them taken over by the Rice Monopoly Board have not been concluded.

TIME WILL SHOW

Referring to the last part of his previous statement, relative to the re-purchase of the rice held by Government and the bill issued in connexion with such purchase, the informant said, "Whether it is a lie or not, time alone will show."

"Yes," concluded the informant, "Mr. Barry is right in that the rice question affects the whole of the Chinese population. The sooner the matter of effective control is established, the better will be it for those who find it now exceedingly difficult, not to say impossible, to have 'enough to eat'."

have emanated from Axis quarters that Herr Hitler has not the slightest intention of spreading his tentacles outside Europe.

NOW is the time for active preparation in the western and eastern hemispheres to resist the Nazi invader. The United States has, thanks to its brilliant leadership and common interests with the British Empire, no illusions now with regard to Herr Hitler's plans and the manner in which he will use his weapon of total force. In the eastern hemisphere, the same resolve to stand firm and united is growing and even Herr Hitler's eastern partner, Japan, is probably beginning to understand the crafty working of the Nazi mind better as a result of the attack that has now been launched at the Soviet. In the case of the Japanese, this understanding of the danger will probably be slower, for their present mentality is nearly on a par with the Nazis—war crazed and filled with lust for power. But even through this crass stupidity, it should not be difficult for them to see that they too will soon become one of the leaves on the artichoke which Herr Hitler will ruthlessly pluck at when it suits him to do so.

New Federal Council For Indo-China

SAIGON, July 13 (Reuter)—A move to broaden the basis of the Government and to give the natives more say in Indo-Chinese affairs was announced yesterday with the publication of an Order-in-Council signed by the Governor-General, setting up a new Indo-Chinese Federal Council of 25 members.

The new body will act in a consultative capacity under the chairmanship of the Governor-General who will call meetings as required.

The members are to be appointed by a Government decree on the recommendation of heads of the provincial authorities; in protectorates the Residents Superieurs will nominate representative in agreement with the native sovereigns.

The representation will be: Tonkin, six members; Cochinchina, six; Annam, five; Cambodia, five; and Laos, three.

QUALIFICATIONS NECESSARY

The nominees "must be known to have experience of public affairs and for their allegiance to Indo-China and France."

Heads of Government departments may also be called to take part in the work of the Federal Council.

The press compares the new body with the national Council of France and emphasises that the new organisation does not represent a return to parliamentary institutions and that the discussions are not necessarily to be made public.

It was admitted that the present institutions were not fully efficient for the present time and that the new organisation was more adapted for the existing strenuous times.

GERMAN STRATEGY HAS NOT GONE AS WELL AS NAZIS HOPED, SAYS CAPT. FALLS

"Nobody can say for certain what is the German strategy in their campaign against Russia, but there is a general and well defined impression, not only in this country, but amongst other observers, that it has not gone as well as the Nazis hoped," said CAPT. CYRIL FALLS, military correspondent of THE TIMES, when he broadcast from London on Saturday.

Capt. Falls declared that the change in the tone of the press and radio comments from Germany, which had started speaking about the numerous difficulties of the job in hand and the obstinacy and courage of the Russian forces and the excellence of the Russian war material, all bore out this impression.

THE STALIN LINE

"This week the enemy seems to be getting at grips with the so-called Stalin Line," continued Capt. Falls. "The Germans say that as soon as this is pierced, the wide, open space of Russia will lie open to the soldiers. I feel that even if they do pierce this line, they will not find things so easy for them."

"The Russian army believes that the best defence is counter-offensive and there is no doubt that the Russian will continue to counter-attack, supported by their air arm and as long as they can do this, they will not easily give in."

Capt. Falls stated that the Germans had most probably made their preparations for meeting such tactics with their usual forethought. This had even been experienced in the fighting in France. "It has kept in my mind the possibility that if the Germans find that matters are not going very well in Russia, they might try standing on the defensive for a short time in order to absorb Russia while regrouping and reorganising their own plans for a further drive," said Capt. Falls.

BEST STRATEGY

"The best Russian strategy would be not to counter-attack, but to mass some of their armoured forces and aircraft at a few vital sectors and then let drive with might and main."

"But if Russian material and the Russian army have resulted in the enemy finding out that the business is more difficult than he expected, there are still some matters that we must not forget. The chief of these is that Herr Hitler started this war in Russia as a sideline. He wants to put himself in possession of the Russian resources and to free himself from

OFFENSIVE RENEWED
LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—The Nazis have renewed their offensive against Russia, according to a special communique issued by the German High Command from the Fuehrer's Headquarters early this morning.

It claims that German Panzer divisions are advancing towards Leningrad, east of Lake Pelpus, on the Soviet-Estonian frontier. "A strong line of Soviet fortifications" has been broken north of the Pripiet Marshes (which divide the White Russian and Ukraine sectors of the front); and in the south-east German and Rumanian forces have "thrown the Russians back beyond the River Dniester," (marking the frontier between the Ukraine and Bessarabia).

The German High Command announces from the Fuehrer's Headquarters on July 12, according to the Bremen Radio: "In a daring assault, the Stalin Line was broken through at all decisive points on the Eastern Front."

Composite Instrument For Common Good Of The Eastern Group

CALCUTTA, July 13 (Reuter).—The view that the Eastern Group Supply Council is being recognised as a composite instrument for the common good of the group, and the attention it is already giving to the future when the collaboration which is initiated for war might be continued in peace, is expressed by Mr. M. S. A. Hydari, the representative of India on the Eastern Group Supply Council, speaking at a luncheon.

Mr. Hydari said that the Supply Council is enabling India to plan her war production by means of demands spread above a reasonably long period of time.

It was giving her opportunities for new production which she could take up if considered worthwhile.

INDIA'S EFFORT

Speaking of India's war effort, he said that India is producing three-fourths of the articles included in the term "requirements of the forces."

Mr. Hydari mentioned that the Council thought that the Indian supply effort was massive and in the range of variety unsurpassed by any country of the group.

He added the one concern at this moment should be not what we are getting from the war, but whether we are doing all we could to help finish it soon and successfully.

SUGAR FACTORIES

Indian sugar factories which have an idle period of six months are to be made use of to cope with war demands, it is reported.

Montenegro Sovereign

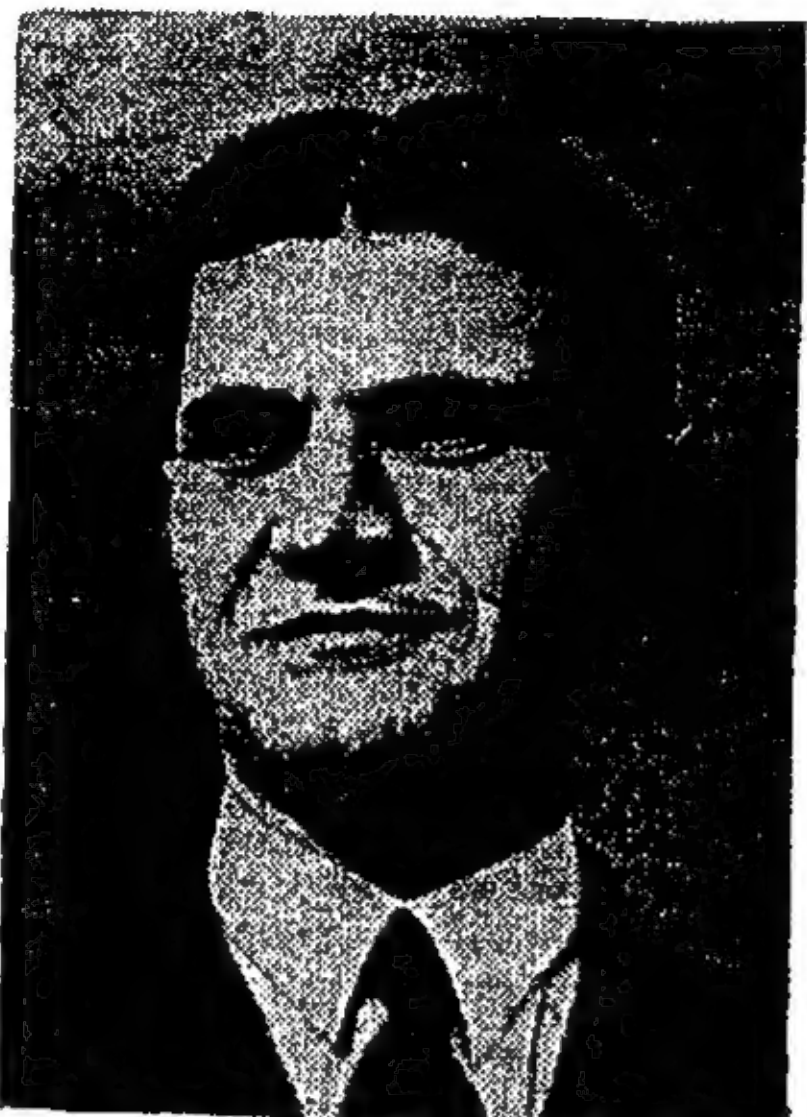

MONTENEGRO, July 13 (Reuter).—A national assembly met on Saturday in Cetinje and proclaimed the Montenegro Sovereign and the independent state taking the form of constitutional monarchy, states the Berlin Radio.

The king of Italy will be asked to appoint a Regent, who is to frame the new constitution.

SAFE CONDUCT FOR AXIS CONSULAR OFFICIALS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13 (Reuter).—Officials at the British Consulate-General here state that they were mystified by Mr. Sumner Welles' statement yesterday to the effect that Britain had guaranteed safe conduct for Axis Consular officials travelling from New York to Lisbon in the steamer West Point, but not to those going home via Japan.

It had been stated previously that Britain would respect the diplomatic immunity of Capt. Fritz Wiedemann, Hitler's Aide-de-Camp and former Consul-General in New York, who was due to sail in the liner Yamata Maru on Sunday.

"All I can say," said the Consular spokesman, "is that in normal circumstances we would not protest against the crossing of the Pacific by Consular officials. However, Mr. Welles may know more than we do."

SCATHING CONDEMNATION OF VICHY: GEN. DE GAULLE BROADCASTS TO FRANCE

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—"We understand now why Hitler, exploiting the degradation of the men who surrendered to him, is doing his best to force those men to support his war activity," said General de Gaulle, leader of Free France, in a broadcast to France on Friday night.

JAPANESE PRESS STIRRING ANTI-BRITISH FEELING IN FAR EAST

The latest propaganda by Japan is to stir up anti-British feeling in the Far East by declaring that a military alliance between Britain and Chungking was about to be concluded and that the United States had also joined.

The NICHU NICHU SHIMBUN says that attempts by the Governments of Britain and China to encircle Japan would not prevent her from proceeding on her programme of southward expansion.

These reports are being broadcast to give the impression that Britain and the United States are interfering with what is called Japan's sphere of influence in the Far East.

The YOMIURI SHIMBUN advises the people to take the report of the alliance calmly.

COLLAPSE DURING BREAKFAST

CHUNGKING, July 13 (Reuter).—Mr. Hollington K. Wong, Vice-Minister of Publicity, his wife and an American guest, Dr. Frank Price, a missionary from Chungking, were having breakfast on the ground floor of their house this morning when the residence suddenly collapsed.

Had it not been for the strong wooden floor above them which held the debris up for a few seconds enabling them to dash outside, all would have been killed.

Mr. Price was the week-end guest. Bombings, followed by heavy rains, have rendered many houses in Chungking unsafe.

Vichy Opposition In Syria Now Ended

CONVOY OF CARS

Their convoy of cars, flying large French flags, were led by 16 tin-hatted Australian despatch riders. They were received by an Allied Commission—composed of General Sir Henry Maitland-Wilson, Lieut.-General Lavalack (Australia), General Catroux, Free French C-in-C, and the Delegate General in Syria, Air Commodore Brown, R.A.F., and Captain More, R.N.

General de Verdillac smiled as he stepped from his large grey limousine. The first army officer to greet him was a Major-General who commanded the original Australian brigade which arrived in Palestine last year.

General de Verdillac was still smiling as he shook hands.

IN OFFICERS' MESS

The discussions were held in the officers' mess in the historic Sydney Smith barracks at Acre. British yeomanry troops surrounded the mess room while the talks were in progress.

Sydney Smith barracks itself is named after the famous Briton who foiled Napoleon's Near East ambitions over 100 years ago when the French dictator tried to storm Acre.

Apart from a group of war correspondents and cameramen, no persons were allowed within the vicinity of the camp.

This was the first armistice meeting that had ever been taken place between British and French since the battle of Waterloo.

How the "cease fire" order was carried out at the battle-front was related to me by an Australian brigadier. "It is perfect peace at the front today," he said.

"Our boys are relaxing. Cease fire was ordered for midnight when the last Australian shell shrieked into Vichy positions. Some Vichy batteries on mountain-tops were apparently unaware of the cessation of hostilities and continued firing for half an hour."

TOUCH OF DRAMA

ACRE, July 13 (Reuter).—The Syrian armistice documents were initiated after discussions lasting nearly twelve hours when a sudden accidental defect in the lighting system lent an additional touch of drama to the event, writes Reuter's Special correspondent with the Imperial forces.

Details of the terms will be made known in an official announcement in London.

Just as General de Verdillac, General Dentz's representative, was putting the pen to the paper, the room was plunged into darkness owing to a blown fuse.

Formalities were continued by the light of headlamps of cars drawn up to the windows and from that of a despatch rider's motor-cycle which was wheeled into the room.

Shortly afterwards, Gen. Wilson bade farewell to members of the Vichy Commission and they roared away into the darkness.

They appeared to be feeling the strain of the recent fighting and Gen. de Verdillac looked tired and worried though the discussions were carried on in an atmosphere of utmost cordiality.

CABINET MEET

VICHY, July 13 (Reuter).—The French Cabinet met last night under Marshal Petain.

A communique issued later states that "current affairs were discussed."

WAR POTENTIAL

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—The signature of the armistice with General Dentz and the elimination of Syria as a field of operations means a tremendous strengthening of the Allied war potential in the Middle East, writes Reuter's Diplomatic correspondent.

Britain has conducted the war on five fronts in recent months in this quarter, namely, Greece, Iraq, Syria, Abyssinia and Libya.

In Syria as in Iraq, the British have confined attacks to military objectives and spared the civil population as far as possible.

This has enabled the Vichy troops to enjoy a certain amount of immunity from the attack but, nevertheless, the advance was pursued steadily and remorselessly until Gen. Dentz realised that a further effort was in vain as his resources were exhausted.

HOLD SYRIA

The Allies should be able to hold Syria confident in the added protection of a friendly Turkey as a buffer state against the German penetration from the north.

Abyssinia is also practically over as the campaign.

The menace against Egypt, once so real and threatening, has been reduced to the single Libyan front where General Auchinleck will be able to concentrate all his energies without any fear of complications from the north, south or west.

The achievement lacks a spectacular success of the blitzkrieg but is nonetheless brilliant, seeing that the forces are at Britain's disposal and a distance from the scene of operations.

Incidentally, it is significant that beyond encouraging General Dentz to resist to the utmost, the Germans made no practical attempt to aid him.

German "tourists" in Syria were quick to leave as soon as the British advance began.

Further, the Germans denied the use of Syrian airfields, will find any air assault on Cyprus a different proposition from what it would have been if they could have used this advantage.

ACRE TO CAIRO

JERUSALEM, July 13 (Reuter).—Interest in the Syrian armistice is now switched from Acre to Cairo and Beirut where the final formalities regarding the ratification of the terms is now being considered.

Referring to yesterday's armistice proceedings, Acre local commentators contrast the simplicity of the meeting with the elaborately stage-managed ceremony of the Franco-German armistice in a railway train in the forest of Compiegne almost a year ago when every detail was thought out by the Germans with the view of humiliating the French.

The Hebrew newspaper HAARETZ emphasises the need for turning Syria into a base of defence against all future surprises from Hitler.

U.S. ASSURES PORTUGAL

NEW YORK, July 13 (Reuter).—The United States has given Portugal assurances that she will not move into the Azores or Cape Verde Islands, announced the Portuguese Minister to interviewers.

Senhor Dibilanchi added, "We got full confidence in the United States and that's what counts."

He added: "We are taking all precautions. Any attempt from any quarter to invade the Azores will meet with Portuguese opposition."

"We would repel anybody but we definitely hope, and trust, that nothing of that sort will happen."

Asked specifically whether the United States had assured Portugal that the Azores and Cape Verde Islands would not be occupied, Senhor Dibilanchi answered, "Of course."

NORTH IRELAND M. P. ARRESTED

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—Cahir Healy, the 63-year-old member of the Northern Ireland Parliament, who was arrested yesterday in Northern Ireland and was put under detention on the order of the Home Secretary, under the Defence Regulations, was brought to London yesterday accompanied by two detectives and was driven to the Brixton Prison.

Healy was interned by the Northern Ireland Government without a charge and was released when the matter was raised in the House of Commons.

He was the leader of the Anti-Partition movement and opposed conscription for Northern Ireland when it was considered recently.

PICTURE OF LIFE IN FRANCE TODAY

ZURICH, 13 (Reuter).—A picture of life in France today is given in the paper BERNER TAGBLATT which stresses the difficulties confronting the masses and their apathy towards the news of current happenings.

"Even with the Syrian war, about 80 per cent. are indifferent" says the paper, adding, "they wish to hear nothing and they are obstinately waiting for peace, hoping to return to the good old times."

The chief victims of the Vichy Regime are those with fixed incomes.

It is also feared that Communists, who still abound, despite continuance of arrests will continue to stir up passive and active resistance.

As regards food, the fear of starvation is just overcome by assuring sufficient supplies of bread, vegetables and wine.

The prices are high and in restaurants, expensive dishes are served only for the wealthy.

SALVOES ACROSS STRAITS

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—In bright moonlight early today, German long-range guns, mounted on the French coast, opened fire across the Straits of Dover and people living on the Kent coast were awakened by the sound of the heavy firing.

Several salvoes were fired, the shells from which crashed into the sea at minute intervals.

The town shelling warning at Dover was not sounded.

The shells were believed to have been aimed at a convoy.

AN EXCHANGE OF DIPLOMATS

ANKARA, July 13 (Reuter).—An exchange of Soviet diplomats from Axis territory and Axis diplomats from the U.S.S.R. is to take place today.

The respective missions are to present in Turkey.

NOTHING TO REPORT

CAIRO, July 13 (Reuter).—A brief Middle East communique issued here today says:

"Libya and Abyssinia: Nothing of importance to report."

"Syria: Yesterday evening Vichy representatives in Syria accepted terms for an armistice convention to end the hostilities in Syria."

GERMANS ARE ENCOUNTERING DIFFICULTIES

NEW YORK, July 13 (Reuter).—An admission that the Germans are encountering difficulties in their attack on Russia from Bessarabia is contained in a despatch from the correspondent of the POPULO D'ITALIA who has visited this sector of the Russo-German front according to a Rome telegram to the NEW YORK HERALD-TRIBUNE today.

"The Soviet defence lines in Bessarabia along the rivers Pruth and Dniester were perfect," he says. "Fortifications were very well constructed and organised and their armaments were excellent."

"The German Panzer units were often obliged to halt before anti-tank trenches which were built in a most efficient manner. They have had to fire thousands of shells to demolish the embankments and fill the ditches."

"Several Soviet regiments remain behind the German-Rumanian lines prolonging the fighting."

"The Dniester has terribly swollen and become a formidable ally of the Reds."

"Often the Soviet redoubts the strongholds and the trenches seem to be impossible to attack as they spray the Germans, advancing knee-deep in mud, with a hail of bullets."

RAIDS ON NAPLES

Naples and resulted in successful attacks on railway stations, warehouses, fuel tanks and shipping, all of which were seen to be hit.

A large explosion was caused in an aircraft factory. Fires were still visible to British bombers 80 miles on their homeward journey.

Between 40 and 50 Maachi and 200 fighters made low flying attacks on Luqa Aerodrome in Malta on Friday. British fighters shot down three into the sea and badly damaged several others without loss, while four Maachis were hit by A.A. fire.

Heavy bombers raided Italy's Libyan port of Benghazi again on Thursday night and caused a number of large fires and explosions near the moles.

On Friday night the R.A.F. dropped bombs "very close" to an enemy submarine in the Eastern Mediterranean.

Of operations in Syria, the communique states: "Bomber and fighter aircraft of the R.A.F. continued activity to support successfully military operations in Syria."

"At Baalbek large fires were caused in petrol dumps and at Aleppo a transport aircraft on the landing ground was set on fire and a goods train south of the town was machine-gunned."

"At Hamana our bombers caused a number of explosions in an ammunition dump, while at Suweida direct hits were scored on the fort."

"Other attacks were made on a motor transport on the coast road near Tripoli and a gun emplacement south-west of Tescakish."

With the exception of losses in the Tripoli raid, no other British aircraft were lost.

22 KILLED

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—An Italian communique admits British air raids on Benghazi and Derna and says that during recent raids on Tripoli, 22 persons were killed and 54 wounded.

Italian raids on Cyprus and Mersa Matruh are also announced and it is claimed that in the latter attack, oil dumps were set on fire.

81 JAPANESE WARSHIPS SUNK

CHUNGKING, July 13 (Reuter).—During last year, Japanese warships sunk by Chinese mines totaled 81 including 16 large troop-ships, nine medium-sized warships, two commercial steamers, 49 steam launches, it was claimed here today.

Two or three thousand Japanese lives were lost.

St. Stephen's College Prize Giving

THANKS

We have to thank many Govt. Depts. for giving us valuable help in many ways. We deeply thank the A.R.P. Authorities for sending Mr. Yuen to deliver the course of lectures in Chinese to our school. The practical demonstration of fire bombs is specially valuable in making them familiar and less terrible to approach. The Director of Education, whom we are glad to see on the platform, has helped us in many ways, not the least by permitting us to share in the very excellent scheme of educational films.

Once again I wish to express my own keen appreciation and the warm thanks of all friends of the school, to the Staff for their loyal and able co-operation through another memorable year. We also again thank Your Excellency for so graciously honouring us with your presence.

GOVERNOR'S SPEECH

After the distribution of prizes, His Excellency addressed the gathering.

His Excellency said:—My Lord Bishop, Ladies and Gentlemen:—I am very grateful to you, My Lord Bishop, for your kindly welcome, and to you, Warden, for your kind regrets at my impending departure. I am deeply sorry myself that I have to give up my post at such a time as this. It is not a thing that any responsibly-minded person would do except at the bidding of his conscience and sense of duty; but that bidding came and my path was quite clear.

I shall not forget the two or three happy hours that I have spent at St. Stephen's College; and in saying that I do not wish my words to be taken merely as a conventional politeness addressed in particular to this school: to me they have a far wider—indeed a world-wide—meaning and application. May I try to tell you, very briefly, why I hold that every thinking human being should feel his heart uplifted whenever he enters any school building, however grand or however humble? There are at least two good reasons for his doing so.

In the first place, every school, whether it is in a backward village where nothing more is taught than the writing of a few characters and the learning of a few ethical phrases, or whether a high grade school such as St. Stephen's College, every school is an outward and visible sign—or I would rather say proof—that the world, as time goes on, will become a better world. The point is simple enough.

All evil is the outcome or product of ignorance; that is to say, of the lack of knowledge of how to live rightly. It is to be all-wise must be to be all-good—and surely that is indisputable—it must follow that the more knowledge a man acquires the higher will be the moral standards by which he will regulate his actions and the less evil will be done. So, every school that is built is a thrusting forward of a new outpost of our advancing front against the forces of ignorance; that is to say, of evil. Not for nothing are the Forces of Evil also known as the Powers of Darkness.

JOYOUS THOUGHT

That is one reason why the mere thought of a school should be a joyous one to everybody who is not a hopeless pessimist. The other reason is, I think, even more encouraging. Every school that is built by the hands and the wealth of men is clear proof of a determination, instinctive in them that the world of tomorrow shall be a better world and that of the day after better still. That determination, no doubt, is seldom expressed in words, or even realised in intention either by those who build the school or by those who use it.

Most parents when they send their children to school have no thought of helping their children to get on in life; but actually there is an underlying impulse far deeper and far stronger than that which is actuating them. That impulse is the same instinctive urge which drives man, even in the lowest grade of civilisation, to strive to solve the problems of existence as they present themselves to him; that compels him to discover each and every secret of nature that is hidden from him; that, as the process grows in pace, it becomes the conscious purpose of the scientist and the philosopher to leave nothing unstudied or unexplained.

Nor does that impulse work only in the breast of the individual. It is active also in the national conscience, finding expression in such national commands as that education shall be compulsory for all.

So, returning to where I started, I ask you that greater happiness can any man feel than to realise that he belongs to a race of beings who, both consciously and unconsciously, individually and nationally, are bent unalterably upon one purpose—namely to acquire the means which ultimately will destroy evil? How can his heart fail to be uplifted when he knows, without a doubt shadowing his mind, that that battle against ignorance and wrong-doing is being surely if slowly won. The words "sursum corda" might well be written over every school gateway.

CONGRATULATIONS

The report which you have just read Mr. Warden is one which must gratify both you and your staff, especially in these difficult days. My congratulations go gladly to the College for its successes both in the class-room and in athletics. In each of these fields, if they are wisely trodden, the opening mind of boyhood can gather to itself knowledge, power and experience that will be a source of strength and an inspiration throughout life.

I hope sincerely that St. Stephen's College will go forward from strength to strength. It has a very important part to play in the Colony's education and it is playing that part to the admiration of us all. I most heartily wish the College all good fortune in the days to come.

VOTE OF THANKS

Proposing a vote of thanks to His Excellency, Dr. T'so said that in spite of that fact that His Excellency was heavily burdened with important matters of State he found time to take great interest in matters of education in the Colony. They were sorry that His Excellency was going and took the opportunity to wish him God-speed and a quick recovery to good health.

His Excellency was the recipient of a beautiful Chinese scroll presented by the College.

Tea was served and brought to a close a very pleasant afternoon.

ROUND THE POLICE COURTS

AT CENTRAL

GAMBLING DEN RAIDED

That a very rich man was behind a big gambling school which was raided on Friday was asserted by Mr. E. C. Luscombe, A.S.P., when he prosecuted in a case in which Chan Hung, 40, unemployed, and Leung Shui, 51, dock coolie, were charged before Mr. Sheldon on Saturday, with keeping a common gaming house for the purpose of "pai kau" at an unnumbered house at King Shan Lane, ground floor, Shaikwan, and 22 others with gambling in the premises.

Second defendant denied that he was one of the keepers, but admitted that he was gambling there. His plea was accepted by the Police.

Mr. Luscombe said that according to his information, it was a very large school, and had been going on for some time, floating from place to place.

Mr. Luscombe added that he regretted that he could not arrest the man behind it, who, in his opinion, was a very rich man.

First defendant was fined $230 or two months' hard labour. One absentee had his bail of $100 treated, while the rest were fined $10 or 14 days each.

Table money amounting to $44.21 was ordered to be put into the Poor Box.

Mr. Luscombe was assisted by Det.-Sgt. V. M. Morrison and Sgt. W. L. Kinloch in the prosecution.

3. The Government Black-out Order of 1940 will be strictly enforced during this period from sunset onwards, and the general public should observe the following points:—

(a) External lights of every description, both on land and in ships, must not be lit, except as provided for in paras. 4 (a), 4 (b), 4 (c) and 5 below.

(b) All internal lights must be screened by shutters, dark blinds, dark curtains, or otherwise, so that no light direct or indirect, is visible from above or from any other direction.

(c) Lights on all types of road transport must be obscured with two thicknesses of ordinary blue close woven cloth or paint. The use of headlights on motor vehicles is prohibited; in other lamps the bulb must not exceed 7 watts in power. Road transport vehicles employed on Naval, Military, Air Force, A.R.P. and Essential Services, may use the authorised headlamp.

(d) Torches and naked lights are prohibited unless screened with two thicknesses of ordinary blue, close woven cloth or paint.

4. SHIPPING

(a) The harbour will be closed to the ingress and egress of shipping, and no movements of shipping or other craft inside the harbour will be permitted between sunset and sunrise on each night of the exercise, except that a restricted ferry service may be maintained by the Star Ferry and the Hongkong and Yau Ma Tei Ferry between Hongkong and Kowloon. The vessels so employed will carry and show the prescribed navigation lights but with their visibility reduced to the satisfaction of the Harbour Master.

(b) Certain light-houses and aids to navigation will not be lit but to assist in the safe navigation of the ferries mentioned in para. 4 (a) above, a navigation light may be displayed on the piers at Kowloon and Hongkong, provided that such light is so placed that it cannot be seen from above, and that it does not throw any light on to the water.

(c) Lights necessary for the loading and unloading of ships will be permitted but these lights must comply with para. 16, paras. 3 (a), 3 (b) and 4 of the Black-out Order 1940 which reads as follows:—

(3) Lights may be used for loading and unloading vessels:—

(a) If so screened that no light is thrown above the horizontal; and

(b) If reduced in intensity as far as practicable.

(4) Every light to which this para. applies shall be extinguished immediately upon receipt of an air raid warning and kept extinguished until receipt of the "Raiders Passed" signal.

5. SHIP-BUILDING YARDS

Shipbuilding yards employed on the building of ships on behalf of the Government will comply with the Black-out Order 1940 on the night of July 21-22, 1941, but on the following nights restricted lighting may be used, provided that the lights are so screened that no light is thrown above the horizontal and the number and intensity of such lights is reduced to the minimum compatible with safety. All lights should be extinguished immediately upon receipt of an air raid warning and kept extinguished until receipt of the "Raiders Passed" signal.

6. AIR RAID WARNINGS

(a) During the black-out, air raid warning signals will be sounded, and all road traffic must stop and pull into the side of the road, extinguish all lights, and remain thus until the "Raiders Passed" signal has been sounded, when they may resume their journeys, provided that their lights are obscured in accordance with the Government Black-out Order of 1940.

(b) The ferries mentioned in para. 4 (a) above will cease running on the sounding of the Air Raid Warning signal, and will proceed to the nearest jetty, where they will extinguish all lights and remain until the "Raiders Passed" signal is sounded. On the sounding of the "Raiders Passed" signal, they may resume their journeys, provided

SECRETS OF THE SURGERY

On Monday I had to sign one of the two medical certificates required to commit Fred Hyman to a Mental Hospital—a much better name than that of "Lunatic Asylum" which was commonly used some years ago.

This recalled the case of a Mrs. Broad which came before the House of Lords in England a few years ago. In London, after the certificates are received by the proper authority, two male nurses are sent to conduct the patient to the hospital.

The latter were instructed by telephone in this case and a mistake was made in the address, with the appalling result that this perfectly healthy normal lady was taken, protesting vigorously, and placed in a public mental hospital.

Instructions must now be given in writing only, so there is not likely to be any repetition of this unfortunate occurrence. The Press treated the incident as a "scoop" and intense public indignation resulted.

Dr. Doalot is an anaesthetist; that is to say he makes his living entirely giving anaesthetics for the surgeons. I certainly don't envy him or hanker after his job. It is one that involves constant and great responsibility; and if a fatality occurs he gets quite an undue amount of publicity.

It always seems to me that the surgeon gets far too big a share of the fees paid for an operation and the anaesthetist far too little—a skilled anaesthetist is just as important a factor in the operation as the skill of the surgeon.

The real criterion of the surgeon's skill is in knowing when to operate; the actual performance of the operation is relatively simple. Any intelligent person can learn to operate well, with experience, but the difficult technique of diagnosis calls for much more knowledge, experience, ability, and perhaps one might add intuition, with which only a happy few are gifted to any marked degree.

Those in possession of all these factors become the great surgeons of their age, and their value to a community is beyond price; but men like Dr. Doalot are essential to their success.

Doctors are generally regarded as "easy marks" by the modern super-salesman. These experts generally call in busy surgeons' hours and the preoccupied doctor, of finds that he has put down thirty shillings or so and signed a contract "not subject to cancellation" to pay instalments amounting to many pounds, for some encyclopaedic work of reference which he has no real use for.

I always try to remember the story of a contemporary humorist about a customer who, visiting an old clothes shop in a part of London in quest of a pair of golf trousers, found himself compelled to buy also a patent putter, a fireman's helmet, and a bowl of goldfish.

The Forestry Bond men, the company promoters, and the inventors of weird contraptions, regard the surgeries as mellow pastures for their "Stock." Charming fellows they mostly are, whose silver tongues make one realise one's good fortune in having been chosen as a prospective buyer of their wares.

AUSTRALIA TO WORK WAR PRISONERS

MELBOURNE, July 13 (Reuter).—The Australian War Cabinet has decided to employ war prisoners at present on camp maintenance and are asking the Labour Department to formulate other work not connected with the war effort.

This was announced yesterday by the Federal Army Minister, Mr. Paul Spender. He added that prisoners working would receive from 6d. to 1/- per day but outside employers would have to pay award rates, the difference going to Britain to offset the cost of maintaining prisoners of war.

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter).—Mr. Ivan Maiky, Soviet Ambassador in London, conferred with Mr. A. Duff Cooper, at the Ministry of Information, yesterday.

A Character Study Of

MAITLAND WILSON OF SUFFOLK STOCK

Henry Maitland Wilson is a member of an old Suffolk family. He has the largeness and the calm of Constable's country, and, like Constable's country, he becomes the more impressive the better he is known.

Still under 60, he was gazetted to the Rifle Brigade while the Boer War was being fought. Even in those far away days his bulk, at first glance, called up thoughts of the Grenadiers rather than of the famous light infantry corps which had harassed the French off their feet in the Peninsula.

That misunderstanding was dispelled as soon as he went into action. Then, on a sudden, he was agility itself. Memory recalls a Service match on the cricket ground at Mount Wise, Devonport, when Captain Wilson of the Rifle Brigade, by stealing impossible runs, reaped the fine fielding of the other XI to wild shies at the wicket. To a protest against the risks he had taken he retorted: "I have spread alarm and despondency among the enemy, which you should always do."

The years have not made him inactive; they have brought him the chance to demoralise a much more numerous enemy on a much wider field.

INSPIRES LOYALTY

An old comrade has called Henry Wilson: "An admirable chief to work for and a grand colleague to work with." Thorough himself, he demands thoroughness from his subordinates. When he finds it, he is generous in his acknowledgment.

He inspires in his troops that devoted loyalty which is never denied to the chief who is master of his job and does it and who expects others also to know and do it. It is remarkable how often for words recur in the attempts made by his friends to draw his character. Large, genial, quiet, imperturbable are used again and again.

One close observer, who him off with the words: "Wilson's mind masticates facts." To catch his shrewd appraising glance over the top of his spectacles at a critical moment is to realise how completely he has absorbed all relevant details and how vain the hope of "killing past with a fast one."

General Wilson is not a man whom it is easy to mistake, which is shown by the fact that nearly everyone describes him in much the same way. He is most difficult to fathom or deceive, of which the latest proof is the failure of the Duce's commanders in North Africa, one after another, to divine his plans or counter his strokes.

A RIFLEMAN

Since the day when he joined the Rifle Brigade, General Wilson has never ceased to be a Rifleman. He held the command of a Battalion for the usual term and is now Colonel Commandant, an honour in which one of his predecessors was the Iron Duke. Perhaps it is not fanciful to see influence of the Rifle tradition in his strategy in the Libyan desert since December 9. The Rifles have always believed in swift movement and in the skilled use of arms of precision. Founded to exploit to the utmost those two factors in success, they have never forgotten their first lessons. General Wilson has certainly leaped at the chances given him by the tank.

Gen. Wilson is now C. in-C. of the British troops in Syria.

SOLID WOOD

Then the fabric is ready for painting. Two kinds of blocks are used to transfer a design to the tapa. One has a raised pattern carved out of solid wood. The other is made from a frame with the ribs and fibres of the pandanus and coconuts arranged in a design.

For colour, shades of yellow are obtained from the fruits of the loa. The sap of the hibiscus supplies red and black. The juice of several tropical plants gives blues and a bluish-gray. When extremely dark shades of yellow or red are desired, slaked lime is added to the liquids. All these dyes withstand both light and moisture.

It usually takes about two weeks to produce a sheet of tapa 47 by 66 inches. No two are ever made exactly alike.

Rudolf Host, a New Yorker, was given some tapa cloth by High Chief Tulasope while visiting in the South Seas. Interested by the craft and recognizing its worth on the American market, he arranged a partnership with the native ruler.

Since then, a great deal of tapa has been imported to America for use by interior decorators and art schools. Its decorative uses have come to include lamp shades and bases, and covers.

RIVER MYSTERY

Young Wife Found Drowned

"Someone is either not telling me all they could, or this is a most unusual case," remarked the South London coroner, Mr. Hervey Wyatt, when he returned an open verdict at the resumed inquest at Southwark on a young wife whose body was washed up on the foreshore of the Thames at Wandsworth.

The day before her death the woman, Mrs. Irene Green, 20, of Warren-drive, Frolworth, Surrey, was apparently perfectly happy and normal, and went to a hairdresser. She afterwards saw her father, and told him she was going home and would see him the next day.

When her body was found certain articles of underclothing and a diamond ring were missing. Dr. Cedric Keith Simpson, pathologist, stated that there was no evidence that she had been attacked or interfered with. Death was due to drowning.

Mr. Edwin Charles Dawson Green, the woman's husband, denied that there had been any trouble between them. Mr. Joseph Palmeri, a hairdresser, of Fulham Palace-road, said Mrs. Green came to his shop

THE ODOUR OF SANCTITY

LONDON.—The crowded underground shelters of London have many drawbacks. One is that they stink. Another is that the air in them is laden with germs.

In a recent issue of Lancet, Scientists Charles Claud Twort and A. H. Baker of the Porton Laboratories in Sussex came out for an old-fashioned way of doing away with disagreeable smells in a newfangled way of doing away with germs; burning incense. Ordinary pungent incense smoke, said they, kills many kinds of nose and throat germs.

Next best disinfectant is smouldering cardboard, damped with a two per cent. solution of potassium nitrate and dried.

Commented the Lancet, arch in the midst of bombs: "It is a strange turn of the wheel which has revealed antiseptic properties in the odour of sanctity."

to have her hair restored to its original colour. She seemed quite normal and left after having a cup of tea. He observed that she was wearing a diamond ring.

Det.-Insp. Dorey said he had been unable to find where Mrs. Green entered the river, or any trace of the missing clothing.

Heroic Action Of Aberdeen Fisherman

DIVERTED DRIFTING MINE FROM SHORE

The presence of mind and disregard for personal danger of a 32-year old Chinese fisherman, Sin Kee, at Aberdeen last Sunday prevented what may have been the most devastating mine explosion accident experienced in Hongkong waters.

According to available reports, Sin was among a number of men who saw the mine drifting into Aberdeen Harbour where there were at anchor at the time more than a 100 junks and sampans.

A number of police whistles were blown, but Sin did better than that. He jumped into the sea, swam out to the mine and steered it away from the shore where an explosion against a rock would have caused great loss of life and destruction to property.

FLEET SCATTERED

Most of the fleet quickly raised anchor and scattered, and the police were early brought on the scene by the whistles, a police launch taking the mine in tow.

It is understood Sin was highly commended by the authorities and presented with a token of appreciation of what he did.

FATAL ACCIDENT

A fatal accident occurred in Jordan Road at 10 p.m. on Friday when an eight-year-old Chinese girl was knocked down by bus No. 870 near Wal Ching Street. She was removed to Kowloon Hospital where she died at 3.15 a.m. on Saturday.

RUMOURS OF CURTAILMENT OF HONGKONG, MACAO SERVICE

Rumours were current in ship ping quarters over the week-end that the number of steamers plying between Hongkong and Macao might be compulsorily reduced as a step to lessen coal consumption and the use of essential goods.

However, no authoritative confirmation of the report is possible, but it was stated that the problem was still being studied by the Economic War Effort Committee.

SEVEN STEAMERS

At present, seven steamers are in the service, and it was suggested that the existing traffic between the ports could be easily handled by two boats.

It was also reported that the result of the recommendations of the Committee, luxury goods were likely to be substantially taxed as a means to restrict the import of non-essential goods and to reduce consumption to a minimum without prejudicing the Colony's war effort.

Control Of Exports To The U. K.

An Order published in the Government Gazette gives details regarding control of transshipment in order to conserve shipping, it having been decided to use import licensing machinery as from July 15.

Such transshipments will only rarely be allowed. But so far as is consistent with objects of reducing volume of transshipments endeavour will be made to avoid unnecessary interference with Colonial exports, especially if it appears impossible for goods to be sent by alternative route avoiding the United Kingdom.

Exporters are warned that after July 15 no arrangements should be made to despatch goods to the United Kingdom for transshipment in the United Kingdom ports or for exportation after transit through the United Kingdom until they are satisfied that a special import licence for transshipment has been granted by the United Kingdom Import Licensing Department. Failure to comply with this requirement will render goods liable to seizure on arrival in the United Kingdom. Where however goods not already covered by a special transshipment licence arrive in the United Kingdom, transshipment application may be made as heretofore to the Customs Authorities. Such applications will however be granted only in exceptional circumstances.

No licence will be required for goods proved to the satisfaction of His Majesty's Customs to have been despatched to the United Kingdom before July 15.

The scheme will not affect goods remaining on board ships entering United Kingdom ports for onward carriage in the same ship or ships' surplus stores which are transferred under customs transshipment regulations to other ships for use as stores.

WAGLAN ISLAND INCIDENT

MR. ATTLEE AND HITLER'S FIRST OBJECTIVE

Speaking at Leith, South Wales, yesterday, the Lord Privy Seal, Mr. Attlee, said that Hitler's first objective still was Britain.

The Russian campaign was only a preliminary to a major attack on the British Isles. Hitler was only seeking to safeguard his eastern borders.

"Something may happen that will call out to the full the courage of the men and women who are standing to defend Britain," he added. "Let no one imagine that the fight will not be a fight of life and death. It calls for courage of heart and brain."

WONGKONG RECAPTURED

SHUIKWAN, July 13 (Central)—Wongkong, a city in southeastern Kwangtung near the Fukien border, was recaptured yesterday evening following a concerted attack by Chinese troops from two directions. Suffering numerous losses, the remnant Japanese are fleeing towards the coast with Chinese troops hotly pursuing.

GEN. BARRON

MADRID, July 13 (Reuter)—Following Saturday's Cabinet meeting it was announced that General Barron was appointed Commander of the military area contiguous to Gibraltar in succession to General Munoz Grande.

As already announced, the latter was leading the Spanish volunteers against Russia.

Two further contingents of volunteers together with Commanding Officers and Staff of "the Blue Division" were leaving Madrid on Sunday evening.

BETTER BABIES IN RURAL AREA

An important section of the annual report of the Rural Board, Singapore, for the year 1940, deals with maternity and child welfare work.

This vitally important branch of the health department, it is stated, continued to function with vigour as in former years and it is the rule, rather than the exception, for the nine main clinics and the nine subsidiary centres to be crowded with healthy mothers, with their similarly healthy offspring, who, one and all, owe their health to the advice and care given them by the extremely hardworked maternity and child welfare staff.

During the first quarter of the year, two surveys were made among the persons attended by the maternity and child welfare staff and it was found that 93 per cent. of the mothers were breast-feeding their infants while in 77 per cent. of the homes visited unpollished rice formed the staple food.

As the maternity and child welfare staff come into contact with no less than 87 per cent. of the babies born in the rural area, this high percentage of unpollished rice eaters means that nearly 70 per cent. of the rural population is consuming unpollished rice as a result of the activities of the maternity and child welfare staff.

An innovation during the year was the seconding to the rural area of midwives undergoing training in the Kandang Kerbau Maternity Hospital, so that they could appreciate the difference between the conduct of confinements in rural homes in the well-equipped labour wards of the hospital.

Each midwife now spends six weeks in the rural area attached to one or other clinic and she accompanies the midwife of the district to all the cases, being allowed to conduct a proportion of them herself under proper supervision.

MALARIA CARRIER

This type of experience is of very considerable value to the majority of the trainees, as they are most of them destined for private practice in which they will not enjoy the facilities of a well-appointed labour ward but will have to carry on as best they can under the unhygienic conditions which exist in many homes, a feat which must be extremely difficult at first to those who have had no experience of conducting confinements in poor homes.

An abnormally dry season was experienced during the first quarter and this occasioned very considerable effort on the part of the anti-mosquito staff, because lack of rain means that many pools and streams will dry up, exposing innumerable small, but very dangerous, seepages to the egg-laying propensities of the female anopheles.

The chief malaria carrier in Singapore is the mosquito Anopheles maculipennis, which rarely breeds anywhere except in the

ECUADOR ACCEPTS MEDIATION OFFER

SANTIAGO, CHILE, July 13 (Reuter)—Ecuador has accepted the offer of mediation by Brazil and Argentina in difficulties which have arisen between Peru and Ecuador.

The Prime Minister, Dr. Tobar Donoso, conferred with representatives of Brazil and Argentina with regard to Ecuador's reply.

Following their talk, it was announced that the reply was acceptance accompanied by suggestions for a speedy and prompt realisation of the mediation proposals.

The text will be published when it has been drafted by the mediators.

REPRESENTATIONS TO TURKEY

VICHY, July 13 (Reuter)—Representations to the Turkish Government concerning the 11 French ships which have taken refuge at Alexandretta have been made by M. Outrey, Vichy Charge D'Affaires in Ankara, says the Vichy News Agency.

It is stated in Vichy that the patrol vessel Eian, the auxiliary tanker Adour and three small minesweepers are the only ships which can be termed warships and that the others are tugs or freighters.

200 INTERNED

The number of French sailors interned is believed to be about 200.

Conversations are also taking place, the agency adds, with the Turkish authorities regarding the men interned from the Vichy military transport St. Didier sunk by the R.A.F. off the Turkish port of Adalia.

TO YU-LAU WINS JUNIOR CHESS TITLE

TO YU-LAU won his remaining game, against V. V. Kolatchoff, in the Colony Junior Chess Championship yesterday to win the tournament with 10 points scored in 12 games.

Holding a very slight advantage in the adjourned position, he managed to out-manoeuvre his opponent in an end-game of a rook and two pawns against two rooks and pushed a pawn through to win.

The game, occupying three sittings, was completed in 99 moves. To had the worse of the early stages, but played skilfully through the middle and end game despite a fairly cramped position.

Other standings so far, with the number of unfinished games bracketed after each score, are:—

A. Y. Briukoff 8½ (1); Un Kwai-yung 8½; A. Kurrik 7½; R. C. Danenberg 7 (2); J. Grefalda 7; J. Tausz 5 (2); V. V. Kolatchoff 5; E. M. Petrov 3½ (1); Wm. Lee 3 (1); R. C. Gardner 2½ (5); A. Morton 1½ (4); J. H. d'Almeida 1.

member of the Rural Board), the quality and quantity of the fruits and vegetables exhibited by the Health Department labourers amazed all who were present, and there is no doubt that the excellence of the exhibits was due solely to the nutritive value of the compost employed on all the garden.

FAMAGUSTA ATTACKED

NICOSIA, July 13 (Reuter)—It was officially announced that the enemy attacked Famagusta, the most easterly port on the island of Cyprus, yesterday morning.

Bombs fell on the old town, causing slight damage to civilian property.

No casualties have yet been reported.

LONDON RELAY OFF THE AIR

The relay of the news from London at 10 o'clock last night broke down about half-way through and when the defect was remedied, Hongkong listeners were in time to hear the news-reader say, "That was E. A. Montague and that is the end of the news from London."

DROWNED DURING EXERCISES

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter)—An inquest was held in Northern Ireland yesterday on the death of six soldiers, who were drowned when they entered the water from a motorboat with rifles and Army boots for what was described as swimming exercises.

Sixteen officers and men were aboard and the men started to swim for the shore—30 to 40 yards away—when the Inspector General arrived.

Two, after swimming ten yards, got into difficulties and sank despite the efforts of the life-saving men. Four others also disappeared.

U.S. OBSERVERS FOR LONDON

NEW YORK, July 13 (Reuter)—American observers for the Office of Civilian Defence left New York for London by Clipper yesterday.

The party includes Dr. Huntington Williams, Health Commissioner for Baltimore, and Capt. Donald Leonard, of the Michigan police, who will tour various populated areas in Britain and study the maintenance of municipal services during raids.

N.E.I.'S PART IN WAR EFFORT

LONDON, July 13 (Reuter)—The Netherlands East Indian Government is considering equipping an expeditionary force as part of the East Indies war effort, according to a statement made by the Batavia radio yesterday afternoon.

The announcer added that the extent to which this would be possible must depend on developments in the international situation.

The possibility of exchanging pilots, now in the Indies, for Dutch pilots with war experience is also being considered.

Flying instructors with war experience have already reached the East Indies, while officers have been sent as observers to various fighting zones.

A seventh was saved by artificial respiration.

This water was about ten feet deep where they left the boat. There was no current running.

A verdict of accidental drowning was returned.
